2. The primary objects of the Convention shall be to encourage and support Wake Forest College ; to educate young men called of God to the ministry and approved by the churches to which they belong ; to encourage education among all the people of the State ; to support the gospel in all destitute sections of the State and of the Southern Baptist Convention ; to send the gospel to the nations that have it not ; to encourage the distribution and study of the Bible and a sound religious literature ; to assist Baptist churches in the erection of suitable houses of worship ; to encourage the proper care of indigent orphan children and destitute and aged ministers of the gospel, and to co-operate with the Southern Baptist Convention in all of its departments of labor.

11. The Education Board shall, so far as it may be able, assist promising and indigent young ministers seeking to prepare themselves for the more efficient preaching of the gospel.

The report of the Board of State Missions was then read as follows:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

To the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina:

STATE MISSIONS.

With feelings of profound gratitude to Almighty God for his manifold mercies and His abundant blessings, we present this our fifty-fourth annual report. The Lord has so wonderfully prospered the efforts of his people in this department of our labors, that its growth has been almost miraculous. For the past seven years a steady and rapid increase has marked its course, until, instead of nine missionaries under the supervision of your Board, there are now sixty-three! Year after year, too, has the cause grown nearer and dearer to the vast multitudes of our brotherhood, and to-day the mention of the interests of State Missions sends a thrill to the hearts of thousands of its earnest supporters. There is no more pleasing feature of the work than that it is taking hold upon the masses.

Your Board has endeavored to supply the destitution which calls so loudly to us for aid. Acting upon the advice of the last Convention, larger outlays were made, more men were employed, and sixty-three earnest, devoted, consecrated men were sent out into the highways and hedges to break the bread of life to hungry souls. As to how well they have performed their part, let the results herewith recorded speak.

But after exhausting the means at our command and going as far as we deemed wise in the matter of appropriations, there were still several appeals for help which we could not meet. Nor is the destitution nearly all occupied. The vast fields referred to in our last report and which are already so well known have been only partially supplied. And with the exception of the interest recently revived on Roanoke Island, those three whole counties—Pamlico, Hyde and Dare—still hang like a pall over our eastern border, without a single Baptist church or Baptist preacher. In the name of the Author of our salvation, we appeal to the Baptists of North Carolina to give us the means and pray God to send us the men to go into this long neglected field.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

At the last Convention your Board authorized the Corresponding Secretary to employ, as far as practicable, the young ministers, who are pursuing their studies at Wake Forest and Louisville, to labor during their vacation in destitute fields, to assist such pastors as desired them in holding meetings, etc. As many as 12 of them have reported their labors to us, and the results are most wonderfully encouraging. They labored 136 weeks, assisted in 80 protracted meetings, preached 716 sermons, witnessed 870 professions and 663 baptisms, and collected $1,014.55 to aid them in their work. For further particulars, see Tabulated Reports.

CONCLUSION.

In reviewing the year's work, there are many things to encourage us to renew and enlarged efforts for the spread of the gospel in the State. The brethren are taking more and more interest in this great cause, as they realize its importance, and are rallying to its support as never before. Our Missionaries, too, have shown great fortitude, devotion and self-sacrifice. It is to be regretted that the funds came in so slowly the first of the year as to cause considerable embarrassment to the Board and some of our Missionaries to suffer great inconvenience. Let us put forth greater efforts than heretofore, that this may never again be the case. A large number of new fields are calling to us for aid and we should thank God for it. It is only an evidence of the growth of Christ's kingdom, and we trust that the Convention will make ample provision to send the glad news of salvation into every neighborhood in North Carolina where there are souls hungering for the bread of life. We must never be satisfied until we realize the object of our prayers, and have conquered North Carolina for Jesus Christ.

Elder J. R. Jones writes: "The spiritual condition of the church is improving, and I think in a few years it will be strong."

Elder W. J. Bumgarner tells us of a very rapid growth on his field. He is building at one point and expects to organize a church at another this month.

Elder W. A. Pool is pushing the work at Lenoir, and the Lord is smiling upon his efforts. They will soon have a house of worship.

Elder E. N. Gwyn still goes about "doing good" in the Brier Creek Association, and is fast developing the body.

Elder N. B. Cobb says the prospects are good for building up a self-sustaining interest at Glen Alpine, and the work is moving on nicely at Hickory and Morganton.

*It is to be remembered that these figures show all the results of the meetings in which the young men engaged, principally as aids to the pastors—all the professions of faith and baptisms witnessed.

Since arranging the above table, we have received the reports of these two brethren: J. A. Beam, Catawba River and South Fork Associations, aided in 5 protracted meetings, witnessed 102 professions of faith and 88 baptisms, preached 33 times in 8 weeks, and received $103.

T. C. Britton aided in 2 meetings, preached 8 sermons, witnessed 49 professions and 38 baptisms. His labors were in the West Chowan Association.

OUTSIDE MISSIONARY WORK.

Several other brethren have been laboring for the Master, but not under the supervision of your Board. Three brethren have been employed in the Flat River Association. Elder J. H. Vernon has also occupied two points of considerable importance between the Mt. Zion and Beulah Associations. Elder D. Gilliland has done voluntary work in the Chowan Association, and so has Bro. A. A. Parrish.

Elder W. B. Harrell has voluntarily preached at Albemarle, the county seat of Stanly county. There is much destitution in this county. Several others have labored under the direction of Executive Boards of Associations and voluntarily, among whom are: Brethren J. A. Rector and D. W. Conway, of the Catawba River Association; G. P. Hamrick and G. M. Webb in the King's Mountain; J. L. Smith, of the Sandy Creek; J. W. Gore in the Cape Fear; W. S. Ballard, R. H. James and A. C. Davis in the Rocky River; and three or four brethren in the Cedar Creek,—20 in all. These, with the twelve young ministers, make 95 who have spent a part of their time in this work.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The conventional year has been unusually fraught with missionary movements. A large number of men and women have decided to consecrate themselves to the Foreign work and have gone to their fields of labor; Miss Emma Young, F. C. Hickson and wife, Miss Mattie M. Roberts, (since married,) J. M. Joiner and wife, and E. E. Devault and wife, to China; W. W. Harvey and wife, and S. M. Cook to Africa; and Misses Addie Barton and Mary C. Tupper and F. M. Myers and wife, to Mexico.

Unusual success has attended the labors of our veteran missionaries who have been so long battling against error in the land of darkness. In Africa 31 have been baptized, 196 collected into their schools, about $400 raised out of a membership of only 125. In China 65 have been baptized, 306 kept in the schools, $677.39 collected, with 611 members in their churches. To say nothing of the grand achievements of the others, our own beloved Yates says of his field: "We have increased the area of our work tenfold, and men and means should be increased in more than a corresponding ratio." And then his translation of the New Testament Scriptures into the colloquial of his province, is one of the greatest works of the age. In Italy 7 baptized, 112 scholars in Sunday-school, and 220 members in the churches. Here our work is progressing well, even under the very shadow of the Vatican. In Brazil the statistics are: 20 baptized, 30 Sunday-school scholars, and 70 members. In Mexico, 52 baptized and received by letter, 40 scholars and 117 members. The growth of this field and the interest manifested by the native authorities in our mission are marvellous in the extreme. Several valuable pieces of property have been secured and movements are on foot to establish schools which will be of untold service to the cause. We give below a summary of the year's work from the report of Bro. Tupper to the late Southern Baptist Convention:

"The number of our missionaries, native and foreign, is 95; their stations and out-stations are 42; the increase of membership has been 175; the pupils of the Sunday and day-schools number 684; our church membership is 1,141; the contributions on the fields amount to $1,077; the home receipts have been $80,465.87. The work is expanding signally in each of the five continents in which our missionaries labor. Next year at least five chapels should be built, and at least ten additional missionaries should be sent out. Our Mexican enterprise needs a heavy outlay of money. Into all our advances the Board has been led seemingly by the hand of Providence. The past inspires gratitude; the future stimulates faith. The Board expects to go forward, depending on the liberality of the churches and claiming the promise of the Saviour: 'And, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.'"

The war in China, cholera in Italy, and the small-pox in Mexico, have all given cause for serious apprehensions, and call aloud for prayer by Christ's servants that these hindrances may speedily be removed.

It will be seen from the Treasurer's report that $4,302.31 have been sent up by the churches through him. Besides this, $876.39 have been forwarded to Bro. Tupper direct, making in all $5,178.70. This lacks $2,821.30. This falls short of the $8,000 asked for by the Foreign Mission Board of the Baptists of North Carolina by $2,821.30. There is need of greater and more extensive liberality on our part as the work progresses, and the fields widen and the number of missionaries is increased. There are two more of "our boys" now at the Seminary who expect to join Bro. Yates shortly after the close of the present session, and we are gratified to know that three or more of our Associations have already taken steps for their support as soon as they shall go. These are direct appeals made to us by the hand of Providence, and may God give us the inclination to meet the demands of his cause.

HOME MISSIONS.

We are glad to be able to report that this most important object is receiving more attention at the hands of our churches than formerly. Our brethren are coming more to see its position as a factor in building up the bulwarks of Christianity in this Southern land of ours against the tide of evil that inevitably comes along with every wave of immigration. Texas and Florida are already rivaling some of the northwestern States in their increase of population from Foreign shores, and from present indications, it cannot be long ere our whole country is deluged in this sea of moving humanity. How important, then, for the good of our children and of generations yet unborn, that we give "the gospel to every creature" in our borders, so that the heaven may work upon the masses as they come among us, until the whole is leavened. We should redouble our efforts in this direction, for we have not done a tithe of what we should do, and what we could do, if we would only make the effort.

The recent report of the Home Board to the Southern Baptist Convention was decidedly more encouraging than were ever before. We give this extract, that our brethren may see something of what has been done:

"Never, in all its history, has the labor of its Missionaries been more effective in the promotion of the Redeemer's Kingdom, than during the past year. There have been received into the churches to which they ministered 2,665 by baptism and 1,525 by letter, making a total addition of 4,190.

The work of the Board has never been better organized, nor if the means were furnished it, has it ever been better prepared to push forward into unoccupied places, and to attempt new conquests for our King. The fields of its labors were never broader nor more inviting, nor the outlook for a grand work more promising.

During the year there have been in its employ for the whole or part of the time 144 Missionaries.

Of these there have labored in

Alabama 2.	Louisiana 8.	Arkansas 12.
Missouri 1.	California 4.	Mississippi 1.
Florida 28.	Tennessee 1.	Georgia 6.
Texas 59.	Indian Territory 19.	Virginia 3.

We would also commend the Church Building Department of this Board in the highest terms. Much good has already been accomplished under the wise and judicious management of Bro. Nuunally, but much more ought to be done.

Nor should we forget the duty we owe to the Indians. Perhaps we owe more to them than to any other people on the globe. We have taken from them all they held dear on earth. Shall we not give them in return the bread of life and the pleasures that never die?

WHEREAS, It is a matter of exceeding great importance that the connection between our college and the great body of the Baptists of the State should be as close as possible; and whereas, the custodians of the College feeling this, were wont for many years, to ask this body to recommend suitable persons from whom to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees; and whereas, we believe this to be a safe and wholesome precedent; therefore,

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to recommend seven brethren from whom to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees.

lowing report from the Board of Education and asked that it be made the special order for 10:30 A. M., Friday.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Within the last year your Board has afforded aid for a longer or shorter period to forty-two young ministers: five at the Seminary in Louisville, two at Wakefield Academy, and thirty-five at Wake Forest College.

This is a larger work than was ever before undertaken by the Board. It is painful to be compelled to add that the receipts by the Board are smaller by $1,022.48 than for the previous year. The result of increased expenditure and diminished receipts is a debt for the work of last session amounting to $675. The greater part of this is due to the Citizen's National Bank of Raleigh on November 21. It is earnestly to be hoped that the Convention will take steps for the immediate liquidation of this debt.

Three of the beneficiaries of the Board graduated last June at Wake Forest. Six are hoping to take degrees at the next commencement. It is deemed a matter for congratulation that the proportion of those who take a regular and thorough course is constantly increasing.

Aid is at present given to twenty-six brethren, all of whom are pursuing their studies at Wake Forest. In view of the debt, and the many and pressing applications for aid at the College, the Board did not feel able to give assistance to brethren at other institutions.

The Board would respectfully ask the Convention for instructions as to the extent to which it should render assistance to young ministers elsewhere than at Wake Forest College.

JOHN W. BREWER, Auditor.

Wake Forest College, N. C., Nov. 8, 1884.

The hour for the special order, State Missions, having arrived, on motion of Elder A. D. COHEN, it was suspended for five minutes.

Elder A. G. McMANAWAY moved that so much of the report as refers to Home Missions be made the special order for 12:30 o'clock Friday morning, which was adopted.

The hour for the special order having arrived, the same was taken up.

Remarks were made by Bro. W. H. PACE, Elders J. D. HUFHAM, R. R. OVERBY, T. W. BABB and others.

A debt of over five hundred dollars was found due the missionaries from the pledges made at the last session, which was assumed and mostly paid by the delegates from the Associations which had not met their pledges, and by other brethren.

Pledges from the Association for next year's work was called for, when Dr. HUFHAM made an encouraging, thrilling and stirring speech. After which the roll of Associations was called by Bro. JOHN E. RAY and the following:

B. F. MONTAGUE,

Treasurer Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

I have carefully examined the accounts of B. F. Montague, Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and find them correct and supported by proper vouchers.

THOMAS H. BRIGGS, JR., Auditor.

Raleigh, N. C., November 8th, 1881.

A letter was read from Rev. JOSEPH E. CARTER, expressing greetings, and regrets at not being present.

Elder HUFHAM moved

That a committee be appointed on Systematic Benevolence, and suggest a plan.

The motion was adopted.

The President appointed Elders N. B. COBB, THEO. WHITFIELD, C. W. SCARBOROUGH, J. A. STRADLEY, J. W. PERRY.

Elder R. R. SAVAGE moved

That a committee be appointed to report on request of Board of Education for advice in regard to the aid of young ministers elsewhere than at Wake Forest College.

The motion was adopted.

The President appointed as said committee, Elder R. R. SAVAGE, Prof. F. P. HOBGOOD, Elder T. E. SKINNER.

The Convention then closed with prayer by Elder PERRY.

NIGHT SESSION.

The President called the Convention to order at 7:30 o'clock.

Song, "Jesus lover of my soul."

Prayer by Rev. J. S. HARDAWAY, of Oxford.

The chair announced the subject of General Education as the topic for discussion.

Rev. Dr. SKINNER stated to the Convention that the Board of Trustees of Wake Forest College had imposed upon him the pleasant duty of announcing that Prof. CHARLES E. TAYLOR had been elected President of the College, and would now address the meeting.

Prof. TAYLOR referred to those who had occupied the position to which he was called. As he thought of those noble men and the grand work they had accomplished, he felt like shrinking back, and yet called to this position as he was, at this time, by the Board of Trustees, he felt like it would be cowardice to refuse. He referred to the feeling that stirred his heart when he received the telegram from two of the Board telling him of his election; of the struggle that had been going on in his breast to-day. The endowment of the College was mentioned, its secure investment, its wise management; the faithful Treasurer, and his stainless character; the Investing committee and its chairman and his love and devotion to the College. The Board of Trustees were men of God, whose hearts and minds were devoted to faithful work for the College. He thanked God for his associates in the Faculty, they were men of prayer, desiring to honor God in their work.

He referred to the students. He thanked Dr. Skinner and other brethren for their kind congratulations, but nothing had so touched him and reached his heart, as the words of a telegram he had received this afternoon from the students at the College extending their congratulations. He had no promises to make about his administration; or of any new departure. Sudden changes would be dangerous.

The College belonged to the Baptists of North Carolina. Some days ago he found a letter in his box addressed "To the Proprietors of Wake Forest College;" he thought as he looked at it of the task he would have to deliver that letter.

It would be natural for brethren to say that we have fitted up the College and it can now go on. Not so, we need the young men of North Carolina. We need the spirit of sacrifice and consecration.

In beautiful, eloquent language Prof. TAYLOR appealed to the brethren for their prayers and co-operation and closed his address.

Rev. A. G. McMANAWAY offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That this Convention most heartily endorses the action of the Board of Trustees of Wake Forest College in electing Prof. C. E. Taylor to the Presidency of that Institution, and that we pledge to Prof. Taylor our sympathy and support.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Elder R. T. VANN addressed the Convention. He defined true education, urged its need and advantages. As individuals, as citizens, as Baptists and as Christians.

At the close of Bro. VANN'S address the Convention adjourned with benediction by Prof. TAYLOR.

THIRD DAY.

At 9:30 o'clock the President called the Convention to order.

Elder J. W. PERRY, of Statesville church, read the 95th Psalm and offered prayer.

The proceedings of yesterday were read and approved.

The President extended an invitation to visiting brethren to take seats with us. The following brethren were introduced: Dr. H. A. TUPPER, Secretary of Foreign Mission Board, Elder W. J. DAVID, Missionary to Africa, Dr. J. W. M. Williams, of Baltimore.

It was announced by the President that Elder N. B. COBB had received a telegram from home telling him that his son whom he had left sick, had grown worse.

On motion of Bro. N. L. SHAW, Dr. HUFHAM offered special prayer for Bro. COBB and family.

The committee to nominate Sunday School Board submitted the following, which was adopted:

J. S. Allen, T. H. Briggs, Jr., N. B. Broughton, J. M. Broughton, J. C. Birdsong, S. H. Fleming, C. S. Farriss, W. R. Gwaltney, J. M. Heck, W. N. Jones, J. C. Marcom, L. L. Polk, J. W. Peele, John E. Dr. HUFILAM moved that the same be adopted as a whole, when Bro. E. G. HARRELL moved to amend by considering it by sections. The previous question was called for and sustained.

The main question was then put, and on motion, the report, as offered, was adopted.

Bro. E. G. HARRELL moved a reconsideration. Bro. GEORGE W. BLOUNT moved that the motion be laid on the table, which motion was adopted.

The hour for the next special order having arrived, it was taken up, being Home Missions. That part of the report of the Board of Missions referring to the subject was read.

On a motion to adopt the report, the Convention was addressed by Rev. Dr. TICHENOR, Corresponding Secretary of the Home Mission Board, Elder H. W. BATTLE, Elder W. T. JORDAN, and Elder A. G. McMANAWAY, and the report was adopted.

Bro. J. M. HECK offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That we recommend to the Sunday School Board and the Sunday Schools connected with our churches, that they endeavor to raise within the next three months the $500 asked for by the Home Mission Board for building a church on Vallance street, in New Orleans, and that we request the Sunday School Board to call this matter to the attention of the Sunday Schools of this State.

Elder HUFHAM and Bro. HECK spoke to the resolution, and it was adopted.

NIGHT SESSION.

Convention re-assembled at 7:30 P. M., and was called to order by the President.

After singing, Rev. C. DURIHAM led in prayer.

Bro. JOHN E. RAY moved that the report of the Sunday School Board be made the special order for 10:30 A. M., to-morrow.

The motion was adopted.

The following was read from Rev. E. F. Baldwin :

LONDON, ENG., October 27, 1884.

To the North Carolina Baptist State Convention :

MY DEAR BRETHREN—I had expected, by about this time, to have reached my new field of missionary work at Tangier, Morocco, and thence to have sent you a word of fraternal greeting. But I am detained here a few days in fulfilling a number of engagements I found friends here had made for me before I arrived. You will have learned from the RECORDER much concerning my plans and movements, as also something of the great goodness of the Lord to me and mine in many ways. My only purpose and desire in now writing you is to send you my love in the Lord Jesus, and to entreat you to give me your prayers. God has bound me to many in the Old North State with strong and precious and holy ties—ties which distance or even death cannot sunder. My heart goes across the sea to them as I write. I covet not only their interest and prayers, but likewise those of all the great Baptist brotherhood of the State I have learned to love so well.

I hope, from time to time, to give you some details of my work among the Berbers through the columns of the RECORDER.

Yours, with much love in the Lord Jesus,

E. F. BALDWIN.

On motion, Elder C. DURHAM was appointed to reply to the letter of Elder E. F. BALDWIN.

The special order for the evening being Foreign Missions; the report of the Board of Missions on that subject was read.

On a motion to adopt the Convention was addressed by Rev. O. F. GREGORY, of Charlotte, in stating the work in this State during the past year. By Rev. Dr. H. A. TUPPER, in a review of the whole field. By Rev. W. J. DAVID, returned missionary from Africa, who told us of the country, the people and their social, political and religious customs.

At the conclusion of the addresses the report on Foreign Missions was adopted.

The Convention was closed with benediction by Rev. Dr. TUPPER.

FOURTH DAY.

SATURDAY MORNING, Nov. 15th, 1884.

The Convention was called to order by the President at 9:30 A. M.

Elder A. D. COHEN read the 49th chapter of Isaiah and offered prayer.

The Journal of yesterday was read, corrected and approved.

Elder J. D. HUFHAM read the following extract from the report of yesterday's proceedings in the Daily News and Observer of this morning:

"The adoption of a new Constitution for the government of the Convention being a special order for 12 o'clock, the document was read by Rev. Columbus Durham and at once Rev. J. D. Hufham moved that it be adopted as a whole. This motion was amended so as to consider the Constitution by sections, whereupon the previous question was called to shut off all amendments and discussion on the matter, and the instrument was thus made the Constitution for the government of the body, about one-third only of the delegates voting to sustain the call for the previous question."

Bro. HUFHAM said "this statement does not represent the facts in the case. In our Baptist assemblages it is not required that the whole number of members present shall actually vote. It is taken for granted that those not voting are with the majority of those who have voted; unless there be explanation to the contrary. The vote yesterday expressed the sense of the body.

Neither was there any purpose, in ordering the previous question, to stifle discussion. The report, when first offered, was recommitted and additional members were added in order that those who wished to change, modify or add to the amendments contained in the report. The previous question was ordered to prevent the useless consumption of precious time."

Bro. E. G. HARRELL, who had furnished the reports published in the News and Observer, attempted to reply to Bro. HUFHAM'S remarks.

Bro. HUFHAM raised the point of order that the reporter of the News and Observer had no right to a hearing upon the floor of this Convention.

The chair sustained the point of order raised.

Bro. HARRELL appealed from the decision of the chair.

The decision of the chair was sustained.

Elder C. DURHAM, for the committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting, reported as follows:

We recommend that the next Convention be held with the church at Reidsville, N. C., at the time designated by the Constitution.

C. DURHAM,
J. M. McMANAWAY,
J. W. PERRY,
Committee.

The report of the committee was adopted.

Elder O. F. GREGORY, for the committee, submitted the following:

The committee appointed to select a preacher to preach the introductory sermon at the next session begs leave to report that they have selected Rev. Jas. M. McManaway, with Rev. F. W. Eason, alternate.

O. F. GREGORY.
W. B. HARRELL,
GEO. W. BLOUNT,
Committee.

The report was adopted.

Elder R. R. OVERBY offered the following report of the committee on Periodicals:

For the building up of the Redeemer's kingdom in our State we know of no human agency employed more powerful than the BIBLICAL RECORDER. Where it is read in our churches, our brethren are in sympathy with all the work of the Convention. We most heartily approve of the course of the RECORDER in defending what we regard as truth, and recommend to our brethren to take it, and use their influence in its circulation.

We also recommend to all our churches the Foreign Mission Journal, and to our Sunday School Kind Words.

R. R. OVERBY,
For Committee.

The special order for this hour, 10:30 A. M., being the report of the Sunday School Board, it was read:

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

To the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina:

It affords us peculiar pleasure to be able to make such a favorable report of the year's work, and of the success which has attended the labors of the constantly increasing number of Sunday School workers. All along the lines progress has been made, new Schools have been organized, and in several instances churches have sprung up as the results of the efforts of the soul-winners.

So far as reported, there have been fifty-six new Sunday Schools organized, many of them in communities where the word of God is not preached, save by these faithful pioneers of the Cross, who have gone out into the battle-field with the sword of the Spirit in hand, and, with open Bibles and hearts burning with the love of a crucified Saviour, have carried the glad message of salvation to those who knew it not. And the standard of the Messiah has been planted in many a heart made fallow by the softening influences of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Let us "thank God and take courage," and press onward to yet greater achievements for his cause.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

A most interesting, delightful and profitable session of our Baptist State Sunday School Convention was held with the church in the flourishing town of Reidsville, July 17—20, 1884, at which there was a goodly number of delegates from fourteen of the different Associations in the State. The interest of the occasion was greatly enhanced by the presence of Brethren G. J. Johnson, of Philadelphia, S. A. Goodwin and A. E. Dickinson of Virginia, and C. C. Chaplin, of Texas, all of whom took an active part in the discussions. It seems to be the prevailing opinion that this was the best meeting we have had.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPPLY STORE.

This enterprise is just now three years old. The interest taken in it by the brethren, and the liberal patronage bestowed by the churches and Sunday Schools throughout the State, have been very encouraging. In fact, the work so wonderfully increased last Spring, that your Corresponding Secretary, with the limited time he could give it, found it necessary to have some assistance. This was secured at an expense of $137.50.

For the success of the Supply Store, we refer you to the statements made below. At the beginning of the year we had on hand, (including solvent credits,) cash and stock to the amount of $900.59. Our present assets are as follows:

Pulpit and Family Bibles.....	$113 00

Sunday Schools, as well as our pastors, with any thing and every thing they need, of good, wholesome literature, at the very lowest publishers' prices.

Another feature of it is, that we now furnish our ministers with such books as they desire at a considerable reduction from regular prices.

We most heartily trust we shall still be the recipients of the confidence, patronage and support of our brethren all over North Carolina. And we also ask that you remember that any contribution sent to this object will go to aid weak schools and Baptist ministers.

REPORT ON OBITUARIES,

ELDER MALTHUS DAVID FREEMAN

Was born in Chatham county, September 10th, 1809, and died May 15th, 1884, in the 76th year of his age. His father was Richard Freeman, his mother's maiden name was Martha Justice, daughter of David Justice. His mother died in 1825, and his father in 1860. Bro. Freeman professed conversion while young, and was baptized by a sainted minister, Elder Harmon, into the fellowship (we think) of Mount Carmel church, and was soon was licensed to preach the gospel. We do not know by whom he was ordained. He married Miss Rebecca Jane Cooley, daughter of Bro. Jacob Cooley, of Franklin county, N. C., October 16th, 1838. He was a member of the Baptist State Convention at Cashie church, Bertie county, in 1834, at Union Camp Ground, Rowan county, in 1835, and at Country Line church, in Caswell county, in 1836. He served the Convention as State Missionary in 1835, and ten and a-half months in 1836. In 1837 he was a member of the North Carolina Bible Society which met with the Convention at May's Chapel, in Chatham county, and was one of the appointees of this Society to represent them in the American and Foreign Bible Society, which was held in New York in April, 1838. He was one of the Board of Managers of the North Carolina Baptist Bible Society the same year. In 1838 he was a member of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, and presented a report on Sabbath schools. In this report he stated, "From the best information now at hand, we suppose there are at this time not far different from 200 schools now in operation in this State, in which there are probably between 1,200 and 1,500 teachers engaged in the instruction of 10,000 or 12,000 scholars." In the years 1838-'39-'40 and '41, he was a member of the Boards of the Convention. During the years of 1840-'41-'42 and '43, he resided at Wake Forest College and kept a boarding house and served some churches as pastor. Dr. Matthew T. Yates, in 1840, at the Convention held at Johnston Liberty church, Johnston county, N. C., was received as a beneficiary, and boarded the first session with Elder Freeman. From Wake Forest College Elder Freeman moved to Franklin county and resided there until his death.

Elder Freeman served several churches as pastor, among them were Brassfields and Concord, in Granville county, Rogers' X Roads, Rolesville, Hephzibah, and Hopkins' Chapel in Wake county, Poplar Spring, Haywood and Cypress Chapel in Franklin county, and Mount Gilead in Chatham county. He was a successful and useful pastor, having the entire confidence of his brethren, and was blessed under God in bringing many souls to Christ. We may call him one of the useful ministers of his day. He was a thorough missionary, not only did he serve the Convention as a missionary, but he gave of his means liberally to the cause of missions at home and abroad. He took the RECORDER for 52 years, and said in his last days that the more than $100 which he had spent for the RECORDER had done him more good than any money he ever spent. He commenced preaching about the same time that Elder George W. Purefoy did; they labored much together, and were a great mutual help the one to the other. For several years he was quite deaf, which was a great affliction to him, but he did not quit preaching, although frequently hindered by the feebleness of his health. For the last twenty years, he was punctual to his duties when well enough to perform them. His last donation to the endowment of Wake Forest College was $100.

During his last sickness he was happy and resigned, and told his family to put on his headstone, "A sinner saved by grace." One who was present with him in his sickness says, "I have never heard of any one during their last days and hours being so happy as he was; he rarely ever could speak of death and going to Jesus and his mother without crying and shouting." "He preached to everybody that came, and told them of Jesus." "Often when he was sick it was like a revival in his room." He was a man of prayer day or night, in the house or on the farm. A member of his family says, "His life lies out before me, and is worth more than worlds to me." Surely a good man has fallen from us, but raised to God. His wife is a pious, devoted christian, and was always a helpmeet to him, both in his temporal and spiritual labors. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn the absence of an affectionate husband and father, but with bright anticipations of a glorious meeting above.

JAMES S. PUREFOY.

ELDER JAMES COLEMAN MARCOM

Was born in that portion of Orange, now embraced in Durham county, N. C., January 23d, 1814, and died at his residence in Wake county, May 27th, 1884, having lived three score and ten years. He professed conversion in the fall of 1833, and was baptized into Mt. Zion church of the Raleigh Association by Elder Thomas Freeman in 1835. He was ordained a deacon of his church, and preached as a licentiate as opportunity was afforded. He moved his membership to New Hope church in Wake county. In 1847 Mt. Zion and other churches called for his ordination and, by request, a council was appointed at the session of the Raleigh Association that year for his examination, of which Elder John Purefoy was chairman: his examination was satisfactory, and he was subsequently ordained at his own church by a presbytery composed of Elders W. T. Brooks, Willie A. Atkinson and James S. Purefoy, on the fifth Sunday in November, 1847. His work of life was mainly in the Raleigh Association, having had some pastorates in the Central, Mt. Zion, Sandy Creek and Little River Associations. He was a successful minister: his labors were crowned with many additions to his churches. He aided in the constitution of a number of churches, some of which owe their origin to his labors. He was well known as a teacher in the school-room as well as in the pulpit. He served the Raleigh Association a number of years as Clerk and also as Moderator. He was for more than 50 years a regular reader of the Bible, and on an average read it through once a year. He has left a wife and several children to mourn his absence, but who confidently look forward to a glorious union above.
